

Houses of the last General Assembly, (House Proceedings, 1867, pp. 1072 and 1104,) to meet a similar committee appointed by the Legislature of Virginia in February, 1867, "to adjust and mark the Eastern Shore Boundary between the two States, the results of their work to be submitted to the Legislatures of the said States for approval or rejection."

We have named on the part of the House, Messrs. Mullin, Smith, of Worcester, and Corbin.

By order,

M. Y. KIDD,
Chief Clerk.

Which was read, assented to, and sent to the Senate.

Mr. Mullin (the rules being suspended) submitted the following order :

Ordered, That there be printed for distribution 500 extra copies of the Report of the Joint Committee from the two Houses of the last General Assembly to meet a similar committee appointed by the Legislature of Virginia in February, 1867, "to adjust and mark the Eastern Shore Boundary between the two States, the results of their work to be submitted to the Legislature of the said States for approval or rejection."

Which was adopted.

The Secretary of the Senate delivered

The bill entitled an Act to repeal Article 26 of the Code of Public General Laws, and to enact a substitute therefor, and to repeal section 22 of Article 16, sections 99 to 103 of the same Article, and sections 33 to 43 of Article 88 of the Code of Public General Laws.

Which was read a first time and referred to the Committee on Corporations.

Mr. Iglehart, Chairman of the Committee on Corporations, reported said bill back to the House without amendment, and moved that the bill be put upon a second reading this day, in accordance with the provisions of section 27, Article 3, of the Constitution.

The yeas and nays were called and appeared as follows :
